• CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY ANNUAL LECTURE

For the past six years, the Canadian Cancer Society, Alberta Division, has sponsored public lectures bearing on developments in cancer research. This year's guest lecturer is John H. Weisburger, Vice President of Research at the Naylor Dana Institute for Disease Prevention. Dr. Weisburger has been well noted for his position on the use of red II, which has been banned by the Food and Drug Administration in the United States.

Both he and his wife, Elizabeth K. Weisburger, are prominent contributors to research on fluorenamine compounds, especially the metabolic conversions of the carcinogen and its binding properties with macromolecules.

- The lecture will be presented on Monday, April 5 in 227 Medical Sciences Building and the public is invited to attend.

• AGENDA FOR GENERAL FACULTIES COUNCIL MEETING

This photograph by R.J. Scharra, Technician, Department of Plant Science, shows the pistil and stamens (four long, two short) of a flower of the Cruciferae family. The photograph won first place in a competition sponsored by the Weed Science Society of America. The award was made in Denver in February.

"FREE COOLING CYCLE" USED AT CHILLED WATER PLANT

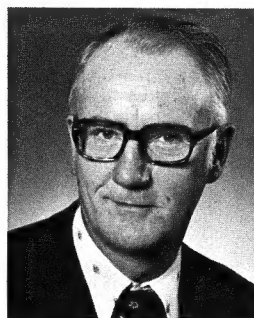

The following report has been received from F. Sargent, Assistant to the Director of Physical Plant.

The Central Cooling Plant, located along the bank of the North Saskatchewan River, produces chilled water that is pumped to the University buildings to provide environmental control. By the nature of its design, this plant takes on a different operation to save energy during the winter months. During the summer months, the plant operates under maximum demand conditions on campus; however, during the winter when the cooling requirements of the University drop below a certain level, river water is used directly to produce the chilled water requirements of campus buildings. This "free cooling cycle," although achieved only when the chilled water system demand is below 17 percent of capacity and the river water temperature is below 3°C, results in an approximate electrical energy saving of $17,000 over the course of the winter because it operates without the use of the compressor machines.

APPOINTMENTS

W.J. McDonald has been appointed Chairman of the Department of Physics effective July 1. Dr. McDonald holds a BSc and MSc from the University of Saskatchewan and a PhD from the University of Ottawa. He was appointed Assistant Professor at this University in 1965 and promoted to the rank of Professor in 1975. A councillor of the Canadian Association of Physicists and a member of several committees of that association, Dr. McDonald has also been an active participant in the research program in nuclear physics at this University and in the development of the Tri-University Meson Facility (TRIUMF) project. He is the author or co-author of forty-four scientific publications.

Patrick Seymour has been named Director of the University of Alberta Devonian Botanic Garden, effective April 1. Mr. Seymour joined the Department of Botany in 1955 following training in Ireland and at the Royal Botanic Garden, Edinburgh. He obtained his BSc in Geography from this University in 1964. The University's Botanic Garden and Field Laboratory was founded in 1959, and Mr. Seymour was its first Curator. He was appointed Associate Director in 1970 and has played a large part in its development and activities. He is well known for his work with many horticultural groups throughout the province and has served as the prairie representative on the Committee on a National Botanic Garden System for Canada.

VISITORS

- Jed Baldwin, MP for Peace River and proponent for freedom of access to government information, visited the Faculty of Law on March 22 and 23. He gave a talk on the Freedom of Information Bill now before Parliament and consulted with students and faculty members.
- D.O. Hebb, Emeritus Professor, of McGill University, presented a seminar, "Perceiving and thinking," to the Department of Psychology on March 12.

BOOKS

- Histology (3rd edition) by T.S. Leeson, Chairman of the Department of Anatomy, and C.R. Leeson has been published by the W.B. Saunders Company.

PEOPLE

- W.A. Ayer, Professor of Chemistry, presented seminars at the Universities of British Columbia and Victoria and Simon Fraser University on the subject, "Synthetic and structural studies on the Ladybug defensive substances." The first laboratory syntheses of these substances were described, and the structures of two new defensive substances were presented. The lectures formed part of the West Coast Universities Chemistry Seminar Series.

- B.M. Longenecker and K.C. Lee, Assistant Professors of Immunology, have been honored by the National Cancer Institute of Canada. Dr. Longenecker has been appointed an Associate, and Dr. Lee a Scholar of the NCI.

■ Lawrence J. Nestman, Associate Professor of Health Services Administration, Faculty of Medicine, lectured on financial management and control in the Canadian Health system at the Executive Development Program for Health Administrators at the Banff Centre, Banff, from February 16 to 19. The program was attended by senior executives from Canada's health system.

- R.T. Coutts, Professor of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, accepted an invitation to spend two days at the Pharmacology Department, Queen's University, Kingston, and delivered a seminar entitled "In vitro and in vivo metabolism of amphetamines."

■ L.C. Green, University Professor, delivered a paper on "International implications of immigration" at an Immigration Conference at the University of Ottawa Law Faculty and addressed the Department of Law at

Sampson, Sessional Lecturer of Elementary Education, delivered a talk on "Using games in an English as a second language program to promote linguistic and cognitive development" to teachers and administrators attending the Manitoba Native Bilingual Programme Pilot Project Workshop in Winnipeg on February 26.

NOTICES

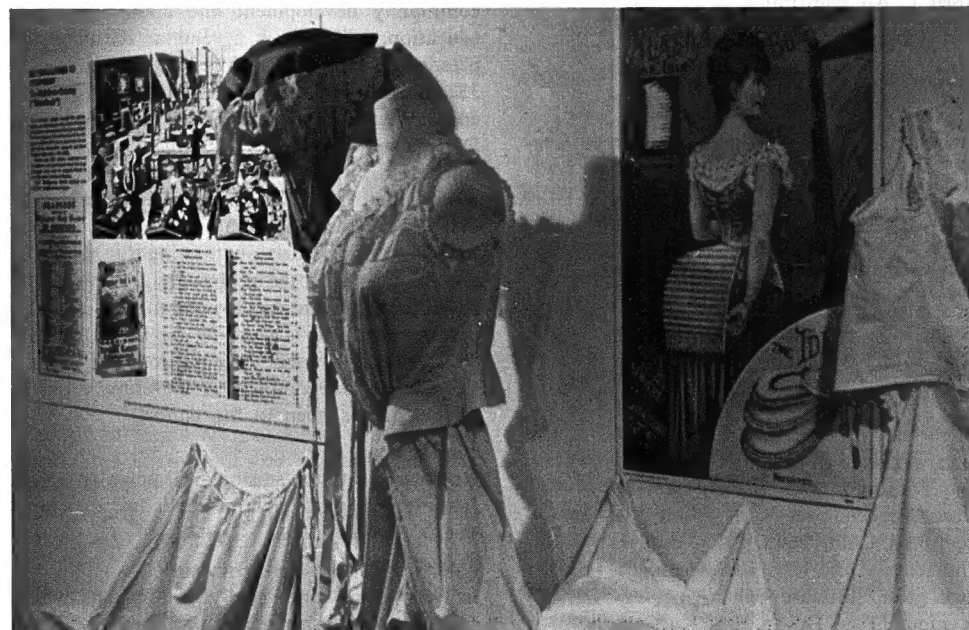

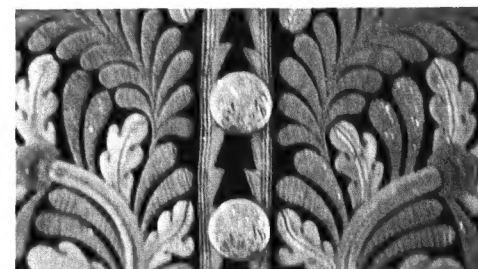

GFC COMMITTEE VACANCIES

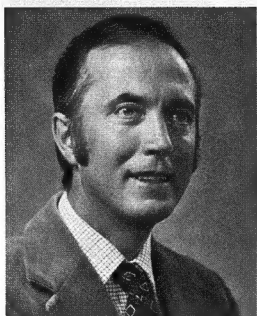

The General Faculties Council Nominating Committee is seeking nominations for the following committees.

1. Selection Committee for Chairman of the Department of Occupational Therapy

The exhibition, "Suitsing Everyone," continues at the University Art Gallery and Museum until Sunday. On Friday and Saturday, March 26 and 27, Pat McDonagh, one of Canada's leading fashion designers will conduct a seminar on fashion design. More information and registration forms can be obtained from the Faculty of Extension or from the Clothing and Textiles Division of Home Economics.

RONALD T. COUTTS AWARDED HONORARY DEGREE

The Senate of the University of Strathclyde (Glasgow) has announced the awarding of the degree of Doctor of Science to Ronald T. Coutts, Professor of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences. This award is in recognition of the research contributions made by Dr. Coutts on the chemistry and pharmacology of N-oxygenated compounds of medicinal interest and on applications of mass spectrometry and combined gas chromatography/mass spectrometry to the identification and quantitative analysis of drugs and their metabolites. Dr. Coutts was elected a Fellow of the Chemical Institute of Canada in 1971 and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of Chemistry in 1975. He has been a Member of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain since 1958.

2. Selection Committee for Chairman of the Department of Physical Therapy

3. Selection Committee for Chairman of the Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology.

Regulations governing the composition of Selection Committees for Department Chairman require that one member, not a member of the Department concerned, be elected by General Faculties Council.

Those who have suggestions for nominations or are interested in serving on the above Committees are requested to contact the Secretary of the Nominating Committee, L. Plaskitt, 1-15 University Hall, telephone 432-4715.

JAZZ WEEKEND

The Edmonton Jazz Society presents a "Jazz Weekend" on April 1 and 2 at the Edelweiss Club, 9663 101 Avenue. Thursday, April 1, is a dance night with the rock group Blizzard, which includes Earl Seymour, Tom Doran, and Kurt Watts.

Friday, April 2, will feature Gene Bertoncini and his trio. The music starts at 9 p.m. both nights. Tickets are available from Opus 69, Fifth Business Books, and Sam the Record Man.

BENEFIT CONCERT

A benefit concert will be held on Saturday, April 3 at 8 p.m., in St. Joseph's Parish Hall, 113 Street and Jasper Avenue. The purpose of the concert is to raise money to help with the building of a technical school in South Vietnam. Local folk musicians Susan Burwash, Steve Goff, Terry Morrison, and the Spauldings will be playing. Admission is $2.50. Sponsored by the World Federation of Democratic Youth.

EDUCATION PUBLIC LECTURE

Nicholas Haines of Canberra, Australia, a consultant of wide international experience in community development and continuing education, will deliver a seminar to interested persons on March 29 at 9:30 a.m. in 332 Corbett Hall. Trained in philosophy and education at the University of London, Dr. Haines is currently working with the Australian National University. His field experience, which has taken him to India, the Middle East, and Africa, provides a base for his present work on training for adult education and on the philosophy of continuing education in relation to community development. He is working on these topics with the Paris-based Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development. The lecture is open to the public.

CORRECTION

Centrex orientation sessions will begin on June 1, not June 21 as given in last week's Folio.

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

In early April, the Faculty of Medicine will sponsor and co-sponsor a symposium and two courses. On April 1, 2, and 3, the Faculty of Medicine, the Division of Continuing Medical Education, and the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons will present a course on diabetes, at the Jasper Park Lodge. Topics to be discussed include drug interaction in diabetic therapy, the planning of diabetic diets, and discharge planning for the diabetic patient. The fee for the course is $60, payable upon registration; the course is approved for ten study credits for the College of Family Physicians.

On April 5 and 6 at the Banff Springs Hotel, the Faculty of Medicine will hold a symposium on one of the major health challenges of today—uncontrollable hypertension. The symposium will treat topics dealing with the day-to-day counselling and treatment of hypertension. In addition to the formal presentations and discussions, participants will be invited to present problem cases from their own experience. The fee for the symposium is $50.

In the auditorium of the Misericordia Hospital, the Faculty of Medicine, the Department of Pediatrics, the Division of Continuing Medical Education, the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and the Misericordia Hospital will sponsor the fourth Annual Post-graduate Pediatric Course. The course, which is approved for 18 study credits for the College of Family Practice, will include post-graduate lectures, seminars, and roundtable discussions on pertinent problems in pediatrics. The fee for the course is $75, payable upon registration.

Further information and registration forms for the symposium and the courses can be obtained by writing the Division of Continuing Medical Education, 12-103 Clinical Sciences Building.

PUBLIC MEETING

A slide-illustrated interpretive program on Zero Impact Camping will be given by Kurt Seel of Parks Canada's Calgary Office at the next meeting of the National and Provincial Parks Association. The meeting will be held Tuesday, March 30, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Provincial Museum and Archives. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

TRAINING PROGRAM FOR VOLUNTEERS

Birthright, a service organization for pregnant girls and women in distress, is looking for new volunteers. A training program consisting of six weekly evening sessions begins on Tuesday, April 6, at 8 p.m., at 9807 106 Street. For more information about the volunteer program, phone Paula Barry at 483-5165, Audrey Gourley at 436-4829, or Laurie O'Neil at 432-0568.
